Celebrate a fun filled week of theatre sports, improv, Mime, make-up and more. This March Break we will be offering a totally new concept that will journey through all aspects of performance for your young talent. So join us as we explore and stage for your delight the stories of Dr. Seuss, Robert Munsch and Rudyard Kipling just to name a few. The students will create their own adaptations of these classic tales of adventure guided by one of our professional teachers from our popular Performing Art's Studio. Students will laugh and learn as they prepare a "Show!" just for you. Curtain up, here we go! This full week long program will be providing top-notch training combined with a presentation for family and friends on the last day of class. Location: Lower Hall – Fairfield United Church Instructor: Roderick Glanville Cost: $350.00	Let your voice be heard! This workshop is designed to focus on story telling through song. Utilizing acting, song, & dance, students will explore ways of telling a story using the popular form of musical theatre. Students will work as an ensemble exploring a wide variety of vocal techniques, movement and acting approaches that will be combined to present their own mini-musical on the last day of the class. Participants will be inspired and encouraged to stretch their talents and will be given industry standard tools for a strong vocal and physical warm up to meet the demands of this exciting art form. This class is perfect for all actor's, singers, and dancers that dream of centre stage, or just having fun! This program will have a presentation for family and friends on the last day of class. A Musical theatre Cabaret will showcase the talents of your future Musical Star! Location: Upper Hall – Fairfield United Church Instructor: Alexander Brendan Ferguson Dance Coach – Samantha Norton Cost: $350.00
