PROFESSIONAL THEATRE TRAINING FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

Craigflower Historical School House 2010 Summer Theatre Camp Monday, August 23 – Friday, August 27, 2010

Kaleidoscope Theatre is excited to offer a new, innovated and unique summer theatre camp experience for young talents!

Participants will explore storytelling in a fun-filled week of improvisation, character study, historical re-creation and interpretation. Partnering with The Land Conservancy of B.C, we have an amazing opportunity to spend a week in the oldest surviving schoolhouse in Canada – Craigflower School House. We will develop communication skills, confidence building and storytelling in a creative learning environment.

"We are going to step back in time and celebrate our rich history by re-discovering our future in the past, and have fun doing it!"

The final day of the camp will culminate in an on-site dramatic re-creation of the life and times of early settlers of Vancouver Island. Bring your family, friends, a picnic, and a fun hat! It's happening on the sunny shores of the Gorge Waterway! An experience you'll not want to miss....so, join us as we explore Victoria's rich history in the place that it happened!

❖ Suitable for ages 9-12 years

❖ Camp times:
9:30 am – 4:00 pm
