

Kaleidoscope Theatre's 2011 Young Playwrights Festival

An opportunity for your school's emerging playwrights and young theatre artists to have their talents showcased to the community, and work with professional artists in a festival setting!

How your school & students can get involved:

- ➔ Submit a PLAY to the competition!
- ➔ Audition as an ACTOR for the festival!
- ➔ Volunteer as a STAGE MANAGER, TECHNICIAN, DESIGNER, or ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
- ➔ Have your school HOST next year's 2012 Festival!

24 HOUR SCRIPT WRITING BLITZ - October 16 - 17, 2010

Location: Victoria High School

- Registration open to Students Grades 9-12.
- Over one weekend, participants will write an original script while learning valuable script writing skills throughout the process. All scripts will receive critical feedback from industry professionals.

JURIED COMPETITION - Deadline January 31, 2011

- Open to all Vancouver Island & Gulf Island students, Grades 6 - 12.
- From the entries, a Jury selects up to 3 winners and up to 3 runners-up to receive cash prizes and have their play produced. All entries receive assessment and feedback at adjudication.

AUDITIONS & INTERVIEWS - February & March, 2011

- Seeking student Actors, Stage Managers, Designers, Directors
- Kaleidoscope's Artistic Director will interview in YOUR school - contact Kaleidoscope by February 4th to arrange for a visit (lower Vancouver Island only).

FESTIVAL - May 11 - 15, 2011

Location: Parkland Secondary School

- Workshops & Rehearsals
- Public Performance on Sunday May 15, 2011 (Time TBC)

For more information please contact us at the office (250) 383-8124.